JETTY CONTRACT LET, WORK TO BE RUSHED

Actual Work of Placing Rock To Begin In 40 Days, Is Contractor's Plan

NEWPORT BEACH, June 11.—All details for the construction of a rubble mound jetty for the city of Newport Beach at the entrance of Newport Bay have been practically completed. The Board of Trustees has awarded the contract to William Ledbetter of Los Angeles, the lowest bidder for the construction of the jetty. Ledbetter proposes to place the rock in position as per plans and specifications as follows:

Forty thousand tons of rock at $1.46 per ton of 2000 pounds; all tonnage over 40,000 to be placed at 74 cents per ton of 2000 pounds; the jetty when completed to be 2100 feet in length extending from United States Harbor Line Station No. 107, southerly along the west side of the channel leading from the bay to the ocean.

On account of the great advance in the cost of material during the past eight or nine months it becomes necessary for the city to expend the entire amount of money made available by the bond election held last September. The amount voted was $125,000. Had it not been for the substantial reduction in freight rates made by the Southern Pacific and Pacific Electric railway companies whereby a saving results to the city on this one item alone, at approximately $15,000, it would not have been possible for the city to have proceeded with the work. The contractor proposes to start work immediately and expects to have all preliminary work completed so that rock can be placed in position within forty days from the date of signing the contract.

Probably no more important event has ever occurred in the history of Newport Beach or has greater significance, than the letting of the jetty. Competent engineers who have given the matter their attention state that with the completion of a jetty of a design proposed, all light draft boats will be enabled to come in and pass out over the bar at all stages of the tide. On account of the great number of fishing boats here and the importance of the industry to the city, this factor alone would justify the present expenditure of money necessary to complete the jetty. It will also afford facilities for all sorts of pleasure craft, facilities second to none on the Pacific coast. The South Coast Yacht Club has always manifested a deep interest in the development of a harbor at this point and will make Newport Bay its headquarters. Of vastly more importance to Orange county and all contiguous territory are the commercial advantages to be derived.

The rock to be used in the construction of the jetty will come from the Declez quarry, Riverside county. Stone from this quarry was used in the construction of the breakwater at San Pedro. The quarry is owned by Russell-Green-Foell Company.

Thousands at Keet Funeral No Clues in Baby's Slaying

HERE is Lloyd Keet, baby heir to $3,000,000, who was recently stolen and later murdered by his abductors. The picture shows him in the arms of his mother, Mrs. J. Holland Keet, wife of the Springfield, Mo., banker. The Keet kidnapping case is one of the most sensational in the history of crime in the United States.

Infant Heir of Springfield, Mo., Millionaire Not Drowned; Death Resulted From Exposure or Malnutrition, Coroner's Jury Holds

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 11.—The body of little Lloyd Keet was buried here this afternoon in Maple Park Cemetery. Thousands of people attended the funeral, though only immediate friends of the family and relatives were admitted to the home services.

Mrs. Keet, mother of the baby, is still in a serious condition, but is bearing her grief bravely.

Baby Keet was not drowned, as at first supposed. The coroner's inquest last night determined that Lloyd had died from exposure or malnutrition. Or he might have been smothered, the coroner stated.

The police admit they are baffled and have no tangible clue. Officers are "somewhere in Kansas" today, where they will try to identify a man known as "Dick Carter," who is said to have been seen in the Crenshaw house at the time the baby was kidnapped.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 11.—With Clyde Pierson and Cletus Adams safe, supposedly in jail at Kansas City, and Taylor Adams, his wife, Allie, and son Maxie, and Sam McGinnis in jail here, the mystery surrounding the death of little Lloyd Keet remains as dark as ever today.

Springfield's vigilantes failed in their mission early Sunday morning. The lynching that the Missouri mob clamored for did not materialize and the confession that the grim men sought to wring from the lips of Pierson was not forthcoming.

Three times they strung the smiling suspect to an oak tree outside of Stockton and twice he came down with the same smile on his lips.

"You're going to kill me anyway, so you might as well have it over with," he said.

Rope Again Tightens

They tightened the rope the third time.

"Any final message?" asked the leader of the mob as he slapped Pierson in the face.

"Just tell the old folks back in Springfield that their boy knew nothing about the Keet baby," he answered, the smile still playing around his lips.

The rope tightened and as far as the prisoner was concerned he had "died."

SPY OR TRAITOR IN NAVY DEPT. IS CHARGE

Senate Naval Affairs Board Hears Daniels Allege Serious 'Leak'

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Following sensational disclosures, the Senate Naval Affairs Committee today ordered a sweeping investigation into charges that there exist defects in ordnance ammunition.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—That a spy or traitor to the Government is operating in the Navy Department or the proving grounds at Indian Head, was the declaration of Secretary Daniels before the Senate Naval Affairs committee today.

Daniels' charges developed when Senator Fröhlinghausen, New Jersey, presented copies of confidential reports bearing on ordnance, which he said had been sent him in an anonymous letter. The reports were designed to substantiate charges of laxity, which resulted in the accidents aboard the American liners Mongolia and St. Louis during gun practice.

5 PERSHING AIDES ARRIVE IN PARIS

PARIS, June 11.—Colonels McCarthy, Taylor and Ireland, and Captains Dun and Moore, the advance guard of General Pershing's staff, reached Paris today. The populace had not been apprised of their arrival and only a few local officials on hand to extend a welcome.

Paris is planning a tremendous ovation to Major General Pershing.

LONDON, June 11.—Major General Pershing conferred with a number of members of the British war staff at his headquarters in the Savoy Hotel today. This afternoon he lunched at Buckingham Palace with King George and Queen Mary and tonight he was to be American Ambassador Page's guest at dinner.

POLITICS MENACING EXEMPTION PLANS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—An attempt to inject politics into the selection of members of conscription exemption boards is on foot in Congress. From indications today, however, efforts of solons will come to naught.

In many quarters it is realized that any tinge of politics would give the selective system a "black eye" and that the people would be aroused. More than a score of senators and congressmen are maneuvering to set "their men" picked for the important places on the boards that will select those who will and those who won't serve in the new armies. Control of one of the members of the board would be a powerful political weapon. In trying to get a line on the prob-

BIRCH PARK TONIGHT WILL BE SCENE OF GREAT MASS MEETING

Sledge hammer blows are to be struck in Santa Ana tonight and tomorrow in the campaign for selling Liberty Loan bonds.

Tonight's mass meeting at Birch Park will result in the Santa Ana Liberty Loan "drive" assuming proportions that will carry the campaign forward on an ever-increasing wave to victory.

Chief among today's developments was the announcement that Samuel C. Benson, of the American ambulance corps, will be the speaker at tonight's mass meeting at Birch Park. Fresh from the shell-riven trenches of Belgium, Benson will give first-hand information of conditions as they exist in the country invaded by the Germans and each word picture he paints will be an incontrovertible argument showing why every man and woman in the United States should buy Liberty bonds, in order that America may be victorious in its battle for justice and the world may be made safe for democracy.

Speaks at Gate City

Benson spoke at an immense meeting at San Bernardino Saturday night and thrilled all who heard him with the stories of his pitiful experiences in Europe; of the bravery of the French women and of the ruthlessness of the German system under which Belgium is now governed.

It is anticipated that the attendance at Birch Park will be the greatest that ever has attended a similar meeting in Orange county. The meeting will be definite proof, it is confidently expected, that the citizens of Santa Ana will do their share toward making the Liberty loan an overwhelming success.

The Boy Scouts of Santa Ana are more than doing their bit toward securing subscriptions to the big United States war loan. Not all the returns from their big campaign or Saturday were available today, practically all of the young patriots being in school. But figures available up to this afternoon show that Scouts had sold or been promised sales of considerable able personnel, and the method of selecting the boards, many Congress members are besieging the War Department with "nominations" and suggestions.

AMERICAN SHIP SUNK BY U-BOAT'S BOMBS

LONDON, June 11.—An American vessel, the Magnus Manson, has been sunk by bombs and gun fire from a German submarine, it was formally reported today. The crew has reached Faro safely.

The Magnus Manson was a wooden, five-masted schooner, owned by the Benedict Manson Marine Company and registered at New Haven, Conn. She was built in 1904 and her gross tonnage was 1,751.

more than $3600 in Liberty Loan bonds.

Boy Scouts Active

To the detachment of Boy Scouts operating in the northeast section under the direction of Rev. P. F. Schrock, pastor of the Congregational church, will probably go the credit of selling the largest amount of Liberty bonds in Saturdays campaign and to Arthur Lyon, Jr., will go one of the medals the government is offering to those boys who sell ten Liberty bonds.

Bonds sold Saturday by Rev. Schrock's Scouts amount to $1700.

A. M. Davis, sloyd teacher at Intermediate school, had charge of the Scouts in the southwest section and approximately $1500 worth of Liberty bonds were sold, or promises of purchases obtained, by them.

The Southwest section of the city was in charge of R. L. Bisby, manager of the Spurgeon Realty Company, and Harry Gaistang, supervisor of music in the grade schools. Four hundred dollars' worth of bonds was sold by the boys in charge of these two men.

Sell Seven Bonds

George L. Ash of the Overland garage, had charge of the Scouts in the northwest section. The boys under Ash sold seven bonds. Ash will be unable until late today to get figures on the amount realized from the sales, as the boys are in school.

The Boy Scouts did their work well, distributing Liberty Loan literature throughout the city and soliciting subscriptions at every opportunity. Reports received from them today are that they secured a list of considerable number of prospective bond buyers and these will be followed up systematically by the Scouts.

E. B. Sprague today is dividing Santa Ana into districts, preparatory to the campaign to begin tomorrow. By this evening the committee of 100 will be chosen and this committee will be present at tonight's meeting at Birch Park. Tomorrow morning at 8:30 the committee will meet at the city hall to start the big Liberty Loan "drive" in the various districts.

BIG STEP TAKEN FOR 'DRY' U. S. BY JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

Sheppard Bill Reported Out Of Senate With Recommendation That Pass

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Another big step toward national prohibition was taken today when the Senate Judiciary Committee reported out the Sheppard bill with the recommendation that it be passed.

The Senate Agricultural Committee voted out the bill restricting the manufacture of liquor in order to conserve the food supply.

The Finance Committee recently decided to put into the war tax bill a prohibitive tax on distilled liquor.

$500,000,000 TO BE ASKED FOR U. S. AIR SERVICE

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The government will soon ask Congress for an appropriation of between five hundred and six hundred millions as a first move toward developing airplane service on a grand scale. It is the idea of the Defense Council to establish aviation stations at intervals across the continent where the men may be trained and machines prepared for service.

It will be impossible to send a big number of troops to Europe for nine months or a year. Representative Hulbert said, "but 5000 aviators and the same number of machines can be ready by August."

FIRST STEP TOWARD FORMING EXEMPTION BOARDS TAKEN TODAY

BY WEBB MILLER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The first actual step toward formation of boards which will consider exemption from service in the new national armies raised by conscription, was taken today when a plan for exemption of those physically unfit was submitted to President Wilson by a special board of lawyers, jurists and military authorities.

STATE COLLECTS 16 MILLIONS FROM TAXES

SACRAMENTO, June 11.—State tax collections will total more than $16,000,000 this year, an increase of three quarters of a million over last year.

SAN DOMINGO BREAKS GERMAN RELATIONS

LONDON, June 11.—San Domingo has broken off diplomatic relations with Germany, a dispatch from Berlin today reports.

WOMAN, this WAR will touch YOUR home

Your home is certain to be touched by the war in which we are engaged. It may seem remote and impersonal to you now, but you must not permit this impression to so persist as to bring you bitter, life-long regrets which will cloud the rest of your days.

It is true that in the first call for men, the ages are confined to 21 to 30 inclusive. But we may find it necessary to put three million men or more in the field. Don't you know that in our Civil War, men of sixty and boys of sixteen fought shoulder to shoulder before the war was done? Don't you know that Sixty and Sixteen are fighting shoulder to shoulder today, somewhere in France?

Be very certain of one thing, this war will touch your home in some way, either through son, father, brother or someone very dear to you, before the war is done.

Is your husband past fifty? How long could he stand sleeping in the mud of a first line trench—standing ankle deep in the water of it—through a week of rain?

Is your brother or son under twenty? Have you seen him toss in fever or gasp in pneumonia?

Let us hope and pray that they will not be called—but do not let us blind ourselves to the possibility that they MAY be called. Remember, 20 million men are fighting today, and twenty million men have been killed, shell-torn, mangled, blinded, wounded and invalidated before this. All Europe is aflame, and we are just going in. WAKE UP to it. We are at WAR—and you may pay with bitter years of sorrow if you fail to open your eyes to it today.

Let's Be SAFE

Let us so conduct the arming and equipping of our first million men, the financing and the feeding of our Allies, that no more men need be sent—that YOUR man need not go.

It has always been women's part to bring comfort and alleviate suffering. Suffering, impaired health and the most extreme discomforts are inseparable from war. It has always been the women's part—it has always been the blessed duty of womanhood—to alleviate this. It is of most vital importance that our men, whether actively at the front or in training camps in this country, be equipped to the highest degree of efficiency. We want our boys to have steel trench helmets to protect themselves against shells that burst overhead. They have none today. They must have gas masks—they must be protected against liquid fire which sears flesh from the bones in an instant. The difference of cost between two grades of socks—a slightly superior quality of underclothing may ward off pneumonia, may repel consumption, may keep some boy's life from being shattered.

How Would YOU Feel?

You can save the lives of many boys. You can preserve them from extreme discomfort, from serious danger, and, as you will do in this emergency, just so the mothers, sisters, sweethearts of the whole nation will do. As you want them to feel and act, and do, to safeguard the lives of all the young men of the nation, so you must feel, and act, and do. You must exert all your strength, for the nation needs your help, NOW.

If your husband, your father, your brother, son or sweetheart were at the front and wounded, or ill, or suffering in any way, you would give him all you possess, every penny, your jewels, your every treasure, to help him—and instantly—wouldn't you? Think, then, how the women-folk of the million who will go must feel today. Do your part NOW for them, that all the nation may repay you in kind, if your very dearest friend is called to face WAR somewhere in France, before we have won a final victory.

How to Help

It is vitally necessary that the Liberty Loan be fully subscribed immediately in order to equip our boys RIGHT. The government has offered for sale two billions of bonds in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and upwards. Your plain duty is to buy as many of these bonds as you can. They can be bought on the partial payment plan. The first payment need only be 2%, $2 on a $100 bond. Anyone with any pocket money or an allowance of any kind can find no excuse for not buying at least one $50 bond. You can make the initial payment of $2 if you please, and pay the rest out of your savings. You can buy a bond through your husband's boss by paying $1 a week. You can go to your bank, to your husband's bank, or any bank, or your husband's employer, and they will receive you, not only cordially, but with all the respect and honor due to an American woman serving her country.

As Good As Gold

And remember that this bond is the soundest investment in the world. It is a first mortgage on the United States—a piece of the wealth of the wealthiest nations. It pays you interest at 3½%. You are saving for yourself, the very money you save lives with.

Do something today to save the lives that you know you can aid in saving. Subscribe yourself to one or more bonds; get your friends to subscribe; give a Liberty Loan Bridge, or a Liberty Loan Tea, or some form of entertainment which will raise funds to buy bonds with.

It IS your Duty; it should be and must be your Pride and Privilege, to do this work.

FATE OF MILLION DOLLAR MILL TO BE DECIDED BY FIFTEEN MEN

Financiers to Meet Tomorrow Night to Discuss Financial Plans For Project

SANTA ANA WILL GET PLANT, SAYS E. C. HOLT

Enterprise Will Return Good Interest On Investment In Opinion of Local Men

The fate of Santa Ana's proposed $1,000,000 cotton mill will in all probability be determined tomorrow night at a meeting of twelve or fifteen men representing the big financial interests of the city. The financiers will meet for a private discussion of the project and determine whether or not it can be financed in Santa Ana.

Santa Ana is going to get the mill, in the opinion of E. C. Holt, as expressed in an interview in a Los Angeles paper yesterday morning. An extract from the interview follows:

"The cotton is so fine; trade prospects, both locally and with South America, the Philippines and the far east, so promising and transportation so ample that I have promised to come out here and operate a mill for the Santa Ana people who invited me here, and when the mill there is a success to sell my Carolina interests and build mills here myself."

Some of the most conservative of Santa Ana financiers are satisfied as far as their investigations have gone, that the establishment of a mill here would return good interest on the investment, and that it could be made a big success under the proper management.

"We will meet tomorrow night for the purpose of discussing the financial end of the mill," said a prominent financier of Santa Ana this morning. "We are satisfied that it would be a big thing for the city and believe that it would return good dividends to those who put their money in it. However, there are many features to the enterprise that will have to be investigated. In all probability the meeting tomorrow night will determine whether Santa Ana can raise $1,000,000 or not. In the event that we decide that it can be done, investigations along other lines will at once be started."

"As it appears to me at the present time, the outlook for the plant here is very promising."

OIL ACTIVITY GREAT IN FULLERTON FIELD

FULLERTON, June 11.—As revealed by a careful survey of the oil fields in this section, the month of June opens with oil development up to a high pitch and with remarkable activity apparent everywhere in the district.

Prices of well materials having advanced from 25 to 100 per cent, this activity is considered all the more amazing.

Not only has the tremendous advance cut into the profits of the business but the scarcity of supplies and the insecurity in getting them has made new development work rather hazardous.

But in spite of those handicaps, operators here continue to outline new work in addition to pushing what has already been started.

PICKS FIRST PEACHES

ORANGE, June 11.—U. D. Rhodes picked his first peaches of the season from a tree on his place on East Chapman street. The peaches, which are on exhibit at a local store, are of the Sneed variety, which is another remarkable feature, as the saucer peach is an earlier variety than the Sneed.

MANY HUNDREDS SOON WILL BE EARNING MONEY

Apricots, Canneries Will Give Employment to People Not Wage Earners Now

With a period of employment near at hand for hundreds of women and girls who now are not earning money, the general prosperity here will be increased materially when the new wage-earners receive their money and turn it loose in local commercial channels. The employment will vary from six weeks to five months. The short period will be during the apricot season and the long season for operation of the two canneries.

The California Packers' Corporation, which is rehabilitating the cannery on East First street, will spend $30,000 in equipping the plant for its first season's run on Refugee beans, chili peppers and pimientos. Several carloads of machinery have arrived in the past few weeks, more are to come in and work of installing is being rushed so as to have the plant ready for operation by the time Refugee beans and chilis are ready for canning, which will be about July 15.

Applications for positions in the cannery are now being received by E. J. Kitterman, manager of the big plant. If the beans and chilis ripen at the same time, as now seems possible, the cannery will start work with 200 women and girls employed. That the cannery will have no trouble in getting help is evidenced by the fact that applications of about 100 women and girls are already on file, leaving only 100 more to be secured to insure a full force.

The cannery will operate for at least five months, the period of its running depending entirely on frosts. It will start on beans and chilis and when these are out of the way pimientos will come on. Canning will continue until frost ruins the vegetable. Judging from past seasons Manager Kitterman expects the plant to continue operating until the latter part of December and possibly until the first of January.

"We will have steady employment for 200 women and girls from about the middle of July until the latter part of December," said Kitterman today, in discussing the opening of the cannery.

"We will have the best of sanitary arrangements and the comfort of our employees has been one of our first considerations. It will not be difficult for the more adept to make from $2.25 to $2.50 per day of eight hours, the work is light, but tedious. The products we handle are not perishable, and we will make every effort to limit the working day to eight hours. This can be controlled by regulation of the picking forces in the field."

Under the law the average wage of 80 per cent of our help must be 16 cents an hour, and this average can be maintained with ease in this class of work and with the proper energy on the part of the help. The work will appeal to the women in many ways. They will not be shifting from one class of work to another, and after a few weeks' employment handling the vegetables quickly and efficiently will become second nature to them."

SOLOMON DANCERS BEATEN BY TUSTIN

Before an unusually large crowd of enthusiastic fans at the Tustin ball grounds yesterday afternoon the home team defeated the Solomon Penny Dance Hall club of Los Angeles by a score of 2 to 1. The Angelenos secured 5 hits and made 4 errors. Tustin garnered 6 hits and made 2 errors. The battery for Tustin was B. Lan Franco and Mitchell; for the Solomons, Clark and Wilson.

4 VIOLENT TREMBLORS DRIVE 31,000 OUT OF HOMES IN LATIN CITY

ROME, June 11.—Four violent earthquakes early today caused a panic at Terni. Dispatches received here assert considerable damage was done. All inhabitants of the town fled to the open fields and are now camping out there fearing further earth tremors.

Terni is a town of about 31,000 population, located in the province of Perugia, forty-nine miles northeast of Rome. A big government arsenal is there. The town is famed for its Roman ruins and a cathedral.

U. S. MAY CENTER WAR EFFORTS ON AIR SERVICE

Decisive Part Taken By English Planes at Messines Shows Possibilities

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, June 11.—As the result of the important, in fact, the decisive part played by British airmen in the success at Messines, it is more than probable that a request will be made to have American military efforts centered on aviation.

British flying men made possible the Messines victory. In no single engagement in which the British have participated have the air fighters played so important a part. They not only "put out the eye" of the German artillery, thereby decreasing its effectiveness fully 20 per cent, but, having driven the German flyers from the air, they hovered over every sector of the battle front and gave minute directions as to where and when various units could and should advance.

New Possibilities Shown
Their effectiveness was so great and their daring uncovered so many new possibilities of co-operation and offensive action that a much greater concentration on aerial construction is bound to ensue. It is presumed that the Germans will also seek to profit by the lesson. While the allies are confident of their ability to excel the German output of flyers and flying machines, there is a feeling among army men that were the tremendous manufacturing resources of the United States concentrated on aerial construction the 1918 campaign would see Germany's air fighters not only outclassed, but completely smothered.

In every phase of aerial work the British flyers at Messines dominated the situation. A flock of racy little one-seaters working at an altitude of approximately 20,000 feet, kept the upper areas free of the German battle planes. In the lower strata at altitudes varying from 3000 to 5000 feet, scouts equipped with observers and wireless outfits reported every phase of the developing fight and gave ranges to within a few yards of battery positions and points at which observers were moving.

Fliers Rain Death

Below these men, perfect swarms of heavy fighting machines equipped with bombs and machine guns, hovered a few feet from the ground and worked deadly execution with bomb and machine gun. They were especially effective in destroying observation posts and various staff headquarters of individual units. One daring flyer swooped down upon an automobile containing five German staff officers and a driver and with well placed shots wiped out all six.

So intense was the British barrage, and so much more deadly than the German artillery fire that the British aviators, instead of working behind their own barrage, crossed clear above it and sought safety back of the German lines, themselves keeping well beyond the line of approaching British curtain of fire.

NEYLAN QUILTS AS STATE CONTROLLER

SACRAMENTO, June 11.—J. F. Neylan today resigned as chairman of the State Board of Control to accept a partnership in the law firm of Sapero & Elrich of San Francisco. Edward A. Dickson, a member of the State Tax Commission, is mentioned as his most likely successor.

Governor Johnson in 1911 appointed Neylan to the Board of Control. Neylan formerly was a newspaper man.

Dickson is a University of California graduate. He was for some years a political writer for the Earl papers, in Los Angeles.

THIS BEST TIME FOR TRIP TO YOSEMITE VALLEY

Geo. E. Peters Home From Automobile Tour to Big Playground Park

This is the time of year to go into the Yosemite Valley, according to Geo. E. Peters, teller at the Orange Savings & Trust Bank, who returned yesterday from an automobile trip to the valley. He was accompanied by his wife. They traveled 860 miles on the round trip and went to the valley in two days, leaving here Saturday afternoon a week ago about 1 o'clock, and arriving at Camp Curry about 1 o'clock Monday afternoon.

"The roads after leaving the boulevard are in fine condition and exceptionally good for mountain roads. We went in over the Raymond-Wawona road from Madera, going by way of Coarse Gold, Fresno Flats and Fish Camp."

"This is the best time of year to go to the valley, from the standpoint of good roads. Men are now working on the roads and wherever bad pieces develop they are taken care of at once. When the dry, hot summer comes on, the repair work will not be as effective as at this time."

"There are hundreds of people in the valley all ready. In Camp Curry alone there were about 350 people when we were there."

"There is one thing that everyone taking the trip should see, and that is the flume from the lumber mills in the mountains to Madera. The flume is sixty-two miles long and there is a continuous stream of lumber shooting down the flume. The flume is visible from the route we followed and we stopped at a number of places along the route to observe men at different stations as they checked the lumber in its course and tied the pieces together. The pieces leave the mill five at a time, clamped together. At the first station two or more of these groups are tied together and at each station the chain grows longer, with a solid flank of lumber running out of the flume at Madera. It was one of the most interesting sights of the trip—and the valley is full of surprising and enchanting scenes."

game." When they cut him down he was unconscious.

Cletus Adams—a spectator of the ordeal Piersol was subjected to, completely lost his nerve. Shrieking his innocence, he pleaded with the mob for mercy.

The failure to force a statement from Piersol had dampened the ardor of the vigilantes and doubt crept into the minds of some.

Piersol Cows Mob
"We never intended to hang him," the leader said, but others admitted it was Piersol who cowed the mob. "Piersol played a lone hand against the mob—and won," they say.

But at Springfield the reception committee, with the site prepared waited hours for the return of the "flying squadron" of eighteen high-powered cars that had been in the pursuing party.

Telephone messages bulletined at "mob headquarters," kept the thousands that jammed the streets in constant excitement. Reports that the captors and their prisoners were on their way back, together with rumors of confessions, kept the ebbing mob spirit alive.

The first gray streaks of dawn were appearing when the advance guard of the vigilantes arrived, bearing news of their disposition of the suspects. The mob silently disintegrated, many apparently glad that no blood had been spilled.

DECKER SENTENCE IS POSTPONED

Charles Decker registered at the office of County Clerk Williams shortly before 3 p. m., today.

When Charles Decker appeared in court in Los Angeles today, sentence was postponed until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Having pleaded guilty in Judge Oscar A. Trippett's court in Los Angeles Saturday to a charge of evading registration, Charles Decker, son of Henry C. Decker, Huntington Beach city trustee, was to be sentenced this morning.

Following young Decker's indictment by a Federal grand jury, the Huntington Beach man appeared in Judge Trippett's court Saturday, accompanied by his aged mother. As he pleaded guilty young Decker stated that he wanted no attorney, although, he said, he had money to hire one.

The court's question as to why he had not registered brought forth his reply that he was conscientiously opposed to war and the killing of human beings. He gave these as his reasons why he failed to enroll on the Government's register of eligibles for war service.

Appearing as a friend of the boy's mother, United States Commissioner D. M. Hammack said that he had been informed by her that her son had a tendency toward suicide and had constantly to be watched. The mother also had told Commissioner Hammack, he said, that the boy had received an injury of the skull when a lad, that he was suffering from rupture and one of his eyes was very bad.

Henry C. Decker, in addition to being a trustee at Huntington Beach, owns a grocery store there. The son worked in the store and also conducted a news agency at the beach city.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—All police departments were today ordered to "round up" "slackers," as the period of leniency has now passed. Beginning tomorrow officers will arrest any and all men unregistered. They will be taken "forcibly if necessary" for registration and then before United States district attorneys for punishment.

COBB DEATH SHAFTS FOR BUTTE MINERS

BUTTE, Mont., June 11.—Ten more entombed miners in addition to the twenty-five saved yesterday were rescued this morning. This leaves eighty unaccounted for. Hope of saving these is stirring the rescue crews to desperate efforts to penetrate the lower levels of the mine.

BUTTE, Mont., June 11.—Spurred by renewed hope of finding miners alive in the Spectacular shaft, occasioned by the rescue of twenty-five men yesterday, rescue crews of helmeted men were today bending every effort toward penetrating the blocked tunnel passages.

The probable death list was lowered by twenty-five yesterday when rescuers brought to the surface a group of miners from the 2400-foot level, where the fire began. The rescued miners, after barricading themselves by building a cloth bulkhead of their clothes, which protected them from deadly gases, remained in the tunnel for more than twenty-four hours. The air in their tiny refuge had become foul during their imprisonment and the twenty-sixth man succumbed to its effects.

LADIES KNOCKED DOWN BY PASSING MACHINE

Mrs. N. L. Kentch, 716 Cypress avenue, suffered severe injuries Saturday night by being knocked down by an automobile driven by Emil Greener of Harber. Miss Mary Black was also slightly injured. The accident happened at the corner of Fourth and Bush while the ladies were crossing Bush and Greener was crossing Fourth on Bush.

LEAGUE TO MEET IN FUTURE ON CALL ONLY

Department In Paper Makes Regular Monthly Session Unnecessary Now

Following the suggestion of President S. J. Jackman, who is confined to his home by sickness, the Taxpayers' League of Orange County will hold no more regular meetings for a time. The league adjourned to meet again at the call of the president pro tem, A. C. Tiede, who was elected to that position during the illness of Jackman.

Jackman tendered his resignation in writing, stating that because of the condition of his health it would probably be some months before he again could assume active duties. The resignation was declined. Tiede being elected president pro tem. Selection of an editor for the Taxpayers' department in the Brea paper was not made. Members present who were suggested for the place declined on the ground that they did not have the time necessary to devote to it.

The situation was left with the understanding that each member of the club would do his part in sending communications to the department covering points in which the league is interested.

Jackman's communication suggested that when the meeting of Saturday adjourned, no more regular meetings be held except at the call of the president, the executive committee, or fifteen members of the league. He offered for this the reason "that the league paper has largely taken the place of the meetings, as all reports from the findings from the county records are printed therein."

In concluding his letter of resignation and suggestions, Jackman said: "I want to say that whatever the actions of the league are today, or any other day, it has planted seed that will never die from the memory of friends or foe, and sooner or later will yield to the people the fruit of victory."

"I wish also to say to the enemies we have made during the life of the league, that we have fought for what we believed, and still believe, to be for civic righteousness in the affairs of our county and not as a personal reason."

A. A. Mills, secretary, took several "shots" at the press of the county for its non-support of the Taxpayers' League movement. He said that the letting of the delinquent tax list by the tax collector should be reported upon.

"I wish to correct reports in the press of our last meeting in which it was stated that I had said that there wasn't work for the tax collector more than two months in each year," said Mills. "There isn't need of the tax collector for one minute. The treasurer might just as well take the money as the tax collector, and a great expense to the county be saved."

A resolution offered by Lucien A. Sweet that representatives of a local newspaper be barred from meetings of the league until an apology was made for the report of the last meeting of the league, was voted down. Sweet read the offending article and declared that it was an unjust attack on the president of the league as well as an unfair report of the meeting.

Mills and others opposed the resolution on the ground that the press should not be "gagged."

OUT OF FIFTY HIS AVERAGE IN TESTS HIGHEST IN STATE

The report of the averages attained in recent civil service examinations given by the state to applicants for appointment as civil engineers is the state service shows that D. M. Baker, a deputy in the office of County Surveyor J. L. McBride, passed the best examination in the test, which was given to fifty men.

Baker's average was 93.85. He is now eligible to appointment as a civil engineer in any department of the state government.

BRITISH SCORE NEW GAINS AT MESSINES

LONDON, June 11.—Field Marshal Haig's victorious Tommies swarmed beyond the Messines ridge for further gains today.

"South of Messines we slightly advanced our line," was Haig's formal report of the night's fighting.

The British general estimates that the fighting in the Wytschaete-Messines battle cost the British less than 10,000 lost, while the Germans put their own figures at 25,000.

The Germans are stunned by the strength of the British blow. Attempts to recover ground are feeble and easily repulsed.

OF $360 NEEDED P. T. A. ASSURED GETTING $150

Time Not Considered Ripe For Asking For Bonds For a City Park

The special committee appointed by the City Trustees to consider the park and playgrounds question at a meeting Saturday afternoon decided to ask the city council to appropriate $150 toward the maintenance of the public playgrounds proposed to be established at the high school and Lincoln school grounds this summer. The sum of $360 will be necessary to carry out the P. T. A. plans.

The committee also went on record unanimously in favor of the establishment of a big city park. The majority of the committee expressed itself as firmly of the opinion that it would be unwise at this time to ask for bonds for a city park.

Those attending the meeting Saturday were City Trustee George McPhee, who was elected chairman; Mrs. J. R. Baker, secretary; Mrs. J. W. Sackman, Mrs. C. H. Wilson, Mrs. B. Uttley, Miss Mary E. Taney, Walter Vandermast and A. G. Flagg.

McPhee stated that the city has no money with which to buy a park now. He favored getting a park but did not think bonds for it would pass if submitted now. He said he had talked to some of the other trustees and thought the council would give $150 for the summer playgrounds.

Mrs. Uttley said the proposal for getting a park was no whim. She said she had been working for one for eighteen years.

Mrs. Sackman was strongly in favor of the playgrounds as proposed by the P. T. A. This summer's experience would be an education as to the value of playgrounds. Mrs. Baker spoke along a similar line, and Miss Taney declared the plans for the playgrounds are simple and satisfactory. Mrs. Wilson was against temporary arrangements.

Vandermast and Flagg said they favored acquiring a park but neither thought the time opportune for asking for bonds.

While the P. T. A. had asked for an appropriation of $360, McPhee said he thought $150 could be secured, the rest of the maintenance fund to be secured elsewhere. Flagg said he believed the M. and M. would contribute.

The recommendation of McPhee for the acceptance of $150, if offered, was sanctioned by vote. McPhee said he would ask the trustees to give $5 each personally. A vote in favor of working toward getting a city park was carried.

WAR'S MEANING AS HE SEES IT, HIS SUBJECT

Scott Anderson delivered a lecture yesterday afternoon in the Grand Opera House, on the subject, "Are Present Institutions Falling? Is God's Kingdom at Hand?" He said in part: "A war unprecedented and without parallel in the history of the race is raging in Europe and threatening the whole world. The dove of peace can find no resting place for her feet; civilization is hanging in the balance; the hearts of men are failing them for fear, and for looking after those things that are coming on the earth. They are asking with bated breath, 'Is this Armageddon?' Is the old order passing away? Is the Golden Age at hand?"

"According to the Scriptures 'the earth abideth forever,' the human family will not become extinct. God's interest in terrestrial things has not waned, neither has His wise, gracious plan been altered, but a world crisis is on, a huge step is being taken in the development of the divine purpose."

"Only that which is perfect can endure permanently in God's universe. For 6000 years one generation of imperfect people after another has been going down into the tomb. Many of man's faulty institutions and customs have long ago perished from the earth—false religions and philosophies, the offering of human sacrifices, polygamy, chattel slavery. But there are three strongly entrenched, imperfect human systems that are now disintegrating under the heat of this great time of trouble, and ere it is over will pass entirely and forever from the earth, else the Golden Age could not come, for God will not put new wine in old bottles. Messiah will not compromise with Satan concerning the rulership of the world, and this great tribulation is permitted for the complete overthrow of the adversary and all the evil institutions instigated by him among the children of man, and not one vestige of them will remain."

"The lease of power to the Gentile nations expired in 1914. Satan is moving out and Christ is moving in. Hence the great commotion incident to the transfer of world domination. 'The kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.' As Christians our allegiance is to King Jesus."

"The present industrial, social and economic order, which is founded upon selfishness and breeds hatred, war and desolation, is being annihilated in this blood conflict. Neither root nor branch of this merciless system will survive."

"The nominal church systems are also doomed. They no longer have the spirit of Christ, but are selfish, proud, and haughty, and not one of the great Bible doctrines do they preach in its purity. They have forsaken Christ and His gospel of peace, and gone off after the kings and war lords of the earth. 'Her sins have reached unto heaven and God hath remembered her iniquity.'"

"Babylon will be destroyed by the same mighty army that will overthrow the kings of the earth. Following the great tribulation, Messiah's glorious kingdom will be fully inaugurated in power and glory. The dead will be awakened and the world of mankind will be blessed. The curse will be lifted. FOUND MERCHANDISE FOR NORWALK MAN ON TUSTIN BOULEVARD

That some driver of a delivery car belonging to a Los Angeles firm took a round-about way to reach a patron in Norwalk was evidenced by the finding of a box of merchandise on the boulevard near Tustin a few evenings ago.

While Mr. and Mrs. Ben Chesley, proprietors of the Home Hospital, were out for a spin in the evening and an automobile consigned to N. Glazier, Norwalk. The name of the Los Angeles firm sending the merchandise was also on the box. Chesley advised the firm of the find and has just received a letter advising him that the box contained fifty fancy Japanese baskets and a jelly bag and that it had been lost by one of the truck drivers. The loss was charged up to the driver.

The driver is ahead the value of the merchandise through the honesty of the parties finding the box.

LORD NORTHCLEFFE REACHES U. S. PORT

NEW YORK, June 11.—Lord Northcliffe, noted British publicist and publisher, arrived at an American port today ready to take up his work as head of the British war mission in this country.

Until he presents his credentials at Washington, Northcliffe declined any extended statement. He had previously indicated what may be expected of him here, however, through a statement to the United Press before leaving London, that he was coming strictly for business and would open offices in the downtown district of New York.

In a statement issued upon his arrival today, Northcliffe said:

"The war cabinet has designated me head of the British war mission to the United States and I have been instructed to try to co-ordinate the work of the various admirable British organizations already established here. We are charged with the task of supplying our war and other needs."

"Until I present my credentials at Washington it is impossible for me to make any further statement."

"I can, however, express my very great pleasure at being again in America, which I have so often visited and which has many delightful associations and friendships for me."

"Nor is it saying too much when I add that the whole British people have a profound sense of grateful appreciation of the magnificent welcome accorded Mr. Balfour and his associates and the complete success of his mission."

NEW YORK, June 11.—Lord Northcliffe, noted British publicist and publisher, arrived at an American port today, Northcliffe came to America at the request of the British war cabinet to co-ordinate the work of the various British missions here.

Mexican Who Boasted Taken Into Custody, Pleads Ignorance of Law

Manuel Castro, 22, of El Modena, registered under the draft law this morning. He was tickled to death to get the chance.

Yesterday Constable Logan Jackson at Orange heard that Castro who lives at El Modena, had said he was not registered and did not intend to register. After a conference with the sheriff, the constable arrested Castro, and put him in jail. This morning Castro told the sheriff that he had been at work on the Hahn ranch, six miles from Corona, and did not know anything about registration day until after he got home a day or two ago. He did not understand what was required of him. Neither did he know that evasion was a serious affair. He asked that he be allowed to register. His request was granted. He was registered and turned loose.

ON GOVERNMENT BUSINESS

About a thousand of the country's leading business men are now in Washington for an indefinite period.

In former days that announcement would have been received by the public with some misgivings. It would have meant, to most citizens, that they had gone there to promote their own particular business interests—that they were lobbyists. But that sort of thing has almost disappeared. These thousand keen business brains are not seeking any selfish advantage for themselves or their stockholders. All are giving their time and ability voluntarily and without compensation to help put the country in economic readiness for efficient war-making.

Among these men are the active heads of several great railroad systems, and many bankers whose names are household words. Every branch of big business is represented. Every man is an expert devoting his best effort to the particular public need which he can best serve.

There has never been anything like this before in the history of our country. There was no such co-operation in the American Revolution or the Civil War. And certainly there was nothing approaching it in the last peaceful decades. Business and government have themselves been at war for many years, to their own mutual disadvantage and loss.

The new co-operation is a fact of happy omen. Surely business and government—which means business men and office holders—will understand each other better hereafter, and get along better. Co-operation need not end with the emergency that produced it.

COMPULSORY WORK

Everybody works in West Virginia. Or everybody will, when the new compulsory labor law goes into effect. A statute recently enacted by the legislature requires every male citizen from 16 to 60 to engage in some sort of labor for thirty-six hours a week as long as the war lasts. There are no exceptions among the able-bodied. The rich must toil as well as the poor. Coupon-clipping is not regarded as a job.

"In no case," says the law, "shall the possession by the accused of money, property or income sufficient to support himself and those legally dependent on him be a defense to any prosecution under this act."

And the penalty? The "able-bodied male idler, loafer or loiterer," as the law designates the work-slackers, will be liable to pay a fine of $100 and do his bit at road-mending in striped uniform.

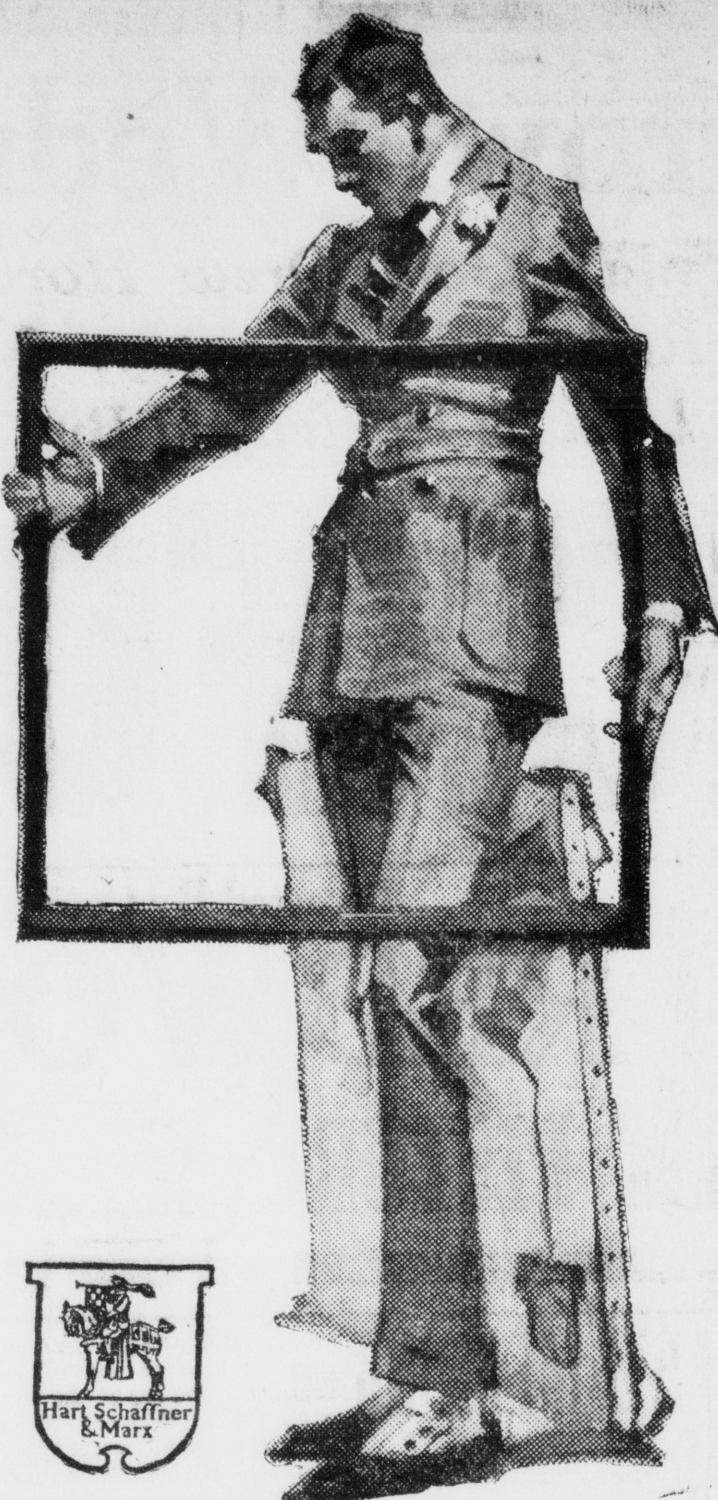

Tramps and retired millionaires under 60 will therefore steer clear of West Virginia from now on. But they will have no assurance of immunity elsewhere, for this wartime-strenuousness virus is spreading. Loafing, whether in rags or a Palm Beach suit, is no longer fashionable or tolerable. If there is a community in the country that has not settled down to a deep conviction that the war is a big national job, demanding every man's best effort, that community has not been heard from.

We are getting back to first principles—to the good old pioneer rule of Captain John Smith, that "he that will not work shall not eat." And it is a wholesome tendency which, let us hope, will not be immediately dissipated by the return of peace.

Tonight will be Liberty Bonds night at Birch Park. You are to be at Birch Park. You ought to be present. If you have failed to understand what the Liberty Bonds are, you will get information along with enthusiasm.

Here is a suggestion worth thinking about: Buy a Liberty Bond and give it to the Red Cross.

LIBERTY LOAN FACTS

The Value of the Conversion Privilege

The holder of a Liberty Bond has the privilege, without expense to him, of exchanging his 3½% bond into any new United States Government bonds which may be issued during the present war, bearing a higher rate of interest.

This is a most important practical reason for deciding to buy a Liberty Bond now.

If the government is obliged to raise the interest rate of any new issue to sell bonds at par (100), the present purchaser enjoys the enviable position of being able to increase his rate of interest by this exchange privilege.

Furthermore, power to increase the interest rate should enable the government to maintain the price of the Liberty Loan at or about par (100).

It seems equally likely that in the event of such increase of interest rate becoming necessary, other securities bearing fixed interest rates will decline in price.

This means that the present purchaser of a Liberty Bond can feel certain that he can sell his bond at any time at practically what he now pays for it, or more. If he holds other securities bearing fixed interest rates, he may have to suffer considerable loss in the event of his selling.

If the war is over in a reasonably short time, he can probably sell his $1000 bond at considerably more than $1000.

Food and Price Control

Sacramento Union

What is the most effective means of increasing production?

Increase in the price of farm products.

What is the most effective means of decreasing consumption and eliminating waste?

Increase in the price of farm products.

What is the objection to agitation for the control of food prices?

It causes the producer to hesitate; it makes the consumer indifferent.

The quotation above is taken from the report of Dean Hunt of the agricultural college of the University of California bearing on the farm survey of food supply investigation of the university.

This may be cold philosophy or economics but it seems out of place coming at a time when the President of the United States, acting in harmony with a well-nigh universal public demand, is moving to secure the very thing this catechism seems to condemn—the control of food.

The agitation for the regulation of food prices, or at least the giving of power to fix prices, was the natural result of the tremendous increase in prices forced on the people, not by actual scarcity but by speculation based on anticipated scarcity.

And yet we are told that the Federal government is all wrong, that we should not discuss or "agitate" for the control of food prices.

It was agitation and the fear of government action that caused the collapse of the grain corner in Chicago. Wheat prices dropped and flour is following.

Herbert Hoover, who is declared by English writers to be the best posted man in the entire world on the food question because he has made it a close study for nearly three years with all the machinery of the allied nations to assist him, has asserted that our present high food prices are 50 per cent too high.

If the theory of the professor is correct, we should not worry about prices even though they were the result of manipulation.

We believe that Dean Hunt has fallen into a grave error. He fails to differentiate between the prices of food stuffs to the producer and the price paid by the consumer.

It may be good logic to argue against the control of food prices, but when practically every nation has been forced to make the attempt to check merciless speculation in food and fuel and with such success that in most of the warring countries, in the face of famine, prices for many staples are actually lower than in this land of plenty, there is reason to question the argument of Hunt and the fairness of his conclusion.

It seems that Dean Hunt went far beyond the proper limitations of a food and farm survey when he injected into his report the question of food price control, particularly as his recommendations are opposed to the expressed desires of the national government.

With Malice Toward None

Exhausting a Panel

The papers state that the jury panel has been exhausted in the effort to procure twelve citizens to try a woman for murder at San Francisco. In view of this inevitable condition, the court manifests signs of impatience. Even if the court is surprised, the public isn't.

Men called for this jury know in advance that while employed at a task that may last for weeks, they will be treated with less consideration than the prisoner.

They know that in all probability the present trial will be only one of a series unless the outcome be wholly satisfactory to the lady at bar.

Service on a jury is repugnant to intelligent men, and indeed, all but impossible for them, since the rules require that though a venireman have intelligence, he must conceal this while under examination, or be dismissed. If accepted, he must be accepted as an ignoramus.

Of course the panel was exhausted. In a sense it was exhausted in advance by the very process of being summoned to the ordeal.

The Resourceful Grocer

A Chicago grocer declared in favor of an embargo on food to Europe.

There were some present, even some grocers, who understood that in the circumstances their associate was advocating a treasonable course, and with reasonable dispatch he was sat upon.

Yet, showing regard for the allies by starving them to death would at least be a novelty.

If the grocer can't think of a better plan he better enlist in the farm brigade.

The Man With the Hoe

Artists have a persistent habit of portraying the farmer as equipped with a hoe.

The farmer has very little use for a hoe. He would employ it in a truck patch, if he had such a patch, but otherwise leave it to the city amateur.

Puzzled

The city council frankly said the papers all were liars. "You're another!" was the answer, possibly a little trite.

And the public gravely wonders, as it hears the row, and tires

If by any chance both parties are not, in a measure, right.

Slumming

Recently a white party, slumming through a negro dive, happened upon a shooting scrape, but all escaped the bullets.

This was doubly fortunate. The scare ought to be enough to reform the slummers, and hereafter they are likely to invade only such places as they have business to be.

Hope This Is Farewell

Bernhardt has left the hospital and is said to be cured.

Hope this really is her farewell visit to such a place.

Teutonic Amusements

Of course the dropping of bombs on England is accomplishing nothing beyond accentuating the atrocity that is the Kaiser's ordinary form of expression.

Killing women and babies and the aged cannot be termed a military achievement, but it represents the modern Teutonic idea of amusement.

Apprehension

There's a roar against gagging the press.

For freedom of speech there's a shout.

And many have signaled distress

From corners where pacifists spout.

Fair Strikers

Thousands of women employed in France have struck or are threatening to strike.

In the circumstances such conduct is not ladylike. It is up to them to strike now only for their altars and their fires.

Liberty Loan

The only excuse for not getting in on the Liberty Loan is that of being without money.

There are comparatively few Americans who cannot get hold of enough to prove their patriotism.

New Citizens

Among the recently naturalized have been a large number of Germans, and there is general confidence that they will be good citizens.

The custom of taking the oath of fealty with a mental reservation no longer obtains.

Failed

He thought he'd sell some free verse stuff.

Alas! he had forgotten

That no free verse is bad enough

Unless so bad 'tis rotten.

AMUSEMENTS

At Clune's

When "Little Mary" visited the forest in connection with the production of the Arcraft Picture now at Clune's Theater, a delegation waited upon her, requesting that they have the privilege of naming a giant redwood for her. She was asked to select one of the enormous trees, but Miss Pickford refused to accept any of them. Instead she chose a young redwood, only a foot in circumference, which seemed a mere dwarf among the giants, and requested that this little tree be named after her.

Temple Theater

The latest screen production of the famous Williamson Brothers, entitled "The Submarine Eye," will be shown at the Temple Theater for two days, commencing with the matinee on Monday, June 11. In it they have departed quite radically from anything they have done before in that they have provided a stirring drama with its principal local, not, as heretofore, at the bottom of the sea, but in and around the picturesque Bahama Islands.

The "Submarine Eye" is decidedly a new thing in photoplay construction and has been pronounced one of the most interesting and romantic dramas ever shown upon the screen.

If this is true civics, then surely we have been laboring under wrong impressions for many years.

HOME WEDDING

Interesting Long Beach Ceremony Unites Miss Inwood and H. C. Drown

The Long Beach Press of Saturday last, June 9, has the following interesting account of the marriage of two well-known young people, Miss Inwood, having recently gone to Long Beach, when her father, Rev. E. J. Inwood, was made superintendent of the new district:

"In the presence of a company of forty relatives, Harry Charles Drown of Santa Ana, and Miss Ruth Inwood responded to the marriage service today noon, read at the home of the parents of the bride, Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Inwood, 1264 Atlantic avenue, by the father of the bride, who is superintendent of Long Beach district of the Methodist Episcopal conference, assisted by her uncle, Rev. Alfred Inwood, superintendent of the Methodist hospital in Los Angeles.

"The setting was an attractive one, the living room, where the ceremony took place being done in palms, asparagus plumosus, white jasmine, tiny white daisies, and a canopy of ferns and Easter lilies, with fluffy bows of tulle. The dining room was in yellow masses of mustard filling corners and archways, and yellow roses and ferns on the tables.

"Preceding the ceremony Reginald F. Inwood, brother of the bride, sang a group of songs. Wedding marches were played by Donald Warren of Covina, cousin of the bride, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Miss Gertrude Inwood of Los Angeles, also a cousin of the bride, sang.

"The young people were unattended. The bride was attractive in an exquisite lingerie gown with long veil held in place by clusters of orange blossoms, and carried white sweet peas.

"A beautifully appointed three-course luncheon was served, Mrs. William Henderson of this city catering. The young people left this afternoon for a wedding journey and will be at home after July 1 at Santa Ana, where the groom is foreman at Gowen & Willard's packing house."

Pleasant Visit Here

Mrs. Morris R. Moody, formerly Miss Edna Blee, has returned to her home in Deer Lodge, Mont., after a six-weeks' visit here, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Blee of El Modena.

Mr. Moody will meet his wife in Portland, where they will visit a week, that city having been their home for two years after their marriage in 1914.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Moody are graduates of the Santa Ana high school of the class of 1906. Mr. Moody took a five-years' course in electrical engineering at the state university at Berkeley, graduating in 1911. That he, like the majority of Santa Ana boys, has "made good" is evident from the fact that for more than a year he has been assistant superintendent and official inspector of the electric work of the C. M. & St. Paul railway, which is electrifying its entire line between Harlowton, Mont., and Avery, Idaho, a distance of 440 miles.

It is the largest work of the kind going on in the world today and Mr. Moody is fortunate at the age of 29 to be able to hold such a responsible position.

ORANGE RECEPTION

Juniors Hosts to Seniors, Graduates of High School, Last Friday Evening

One of the pleasant social functions at Orange last week was the Junior-Senior reception, given last Friday evening in the study hall, which was effectively decorated in the school colors of orange and white, streamers forming a canopy from the chandeliers to the four corners of the room.

A delightful program consisted of a cornet solo by Halford Thomas entitled "Absent;" farewell to Seniors, Lawrence Phillips, and response by Gilford Rowland; vocal solo, "Good-bye," Dean Campbell; and the closing feature a clever one-act play, entitled "Miss Civilization," the characters being well taken by Miss Lillian Reed, who took the part because of illness of the young lady who was to have taken the part, and acquitted herself admirably. Miss Helen Wyland, Wayne McGill, Lawrence Phillips, Glenn Porter, Halford Thomas, Dean Campbell and Bronson Barber.

The merry company of young people then adjourned to the basement dining room of the Presbyterian church, which was made inviting with palms, sweet peas and canary birds.

A delicious menu was served consisting of fruit cocktail in orange baskets, clams on rosettes, cheese straws, mashed potatoes, with garnish of peas, chicken pants, green peas, rolls, pineapple nut sundae, with cup cakes iced in white and the figures '17. The place cards were done in water colors and the favors were blue and white baskets filled with mints and salted nuts.

During the service of the banquet piano, banjo and ukulele music was enjoyed.

Sheldon Wheeler made an efficient toastmaster. Halford Thomas gave the toast to the seniors and was responded to by Roscoe Shaffert; toast to the principal, Delbert Brunton, who is in the training camp at the Presidio, Roy Edwards, response was a letter from Mr. Brunton read by Lawrence Phillips; to the boys of San Bernardino high school, Company K, N. G., Homer Anderson, response by Harold Swisher of Company K; to the faculty, Miss Mabel Perry, response, Alfred Higgins; to Miss Pryne, who has taught in Orange high twelve and is now retiring after thirty years' faithful service, Miss Myrtle Klahn, response, Miss Pryne; to athletics, Otto Rozell, response, Willis Mitchell. The happy evening closed with the singing of the class songs.

The Crusaders' Concert

A treat is in store for those attending the Choral Art Club concert in the Temple Theater Wednesday evening, June 13, at 8:15. The chorus, soloists and orchestra have worked hard to perfect the music, and Holmes Bishop, the conductor, expresses himself as highly pleased with the progress and predicts a most pleasing concert.

"The Crusaders," by Gade, was first produced in Copenhagen in 1866. The music is exceptionally beautiful, possessing fine melodies and dramatic passages which all can appreciate and enjoy. It is a sacred work and the plot is based on Tasso's Jerusalem Liberata. It is the same as in Tannhauser.

Gade was Denmark's greatest composer, and this cantata was the most beautiful of his choral works.

It is interesting that the scene of this cantata was enacted on the same desert waste on which the British recently vanquished the Turks. Mrs. Marie G. Bishop will sing the part of Armida. Alex. J. Garraway that of Rinaldo, and Maurice C. Phillips that of Peter, the Hermit. The soloists are chosen from the club according to their roles.

Others assisting will be Harry Garstang, Allan Revill and an orchestra of fifteen local players.

The High School Play

"The Lion and the Mouse," which is to be staged at the Temple Theater on Monday and Tuesday nights of next week, is one of the strongest modern plays ever attempted by any senior class of the Santa Ana High School. While the play deals with the problems of a trampled finance, with John Burckett Ryder as the black cloud of almost impenetrable density, still the silver edges soon begin to disclose the proverbial lining; and principle, directed by a woman's keen wit, as portrayed in Shirley Rossmore, is victorious.

The cast, which is largely made up of the Senior Drama Class, is especially capable of handling the difficult

How Will
The War
Affect Business?

The question is being asked on every hand. Our answer is based on the opinions of high authorities and indisputable evidence.

As a criterion of what is to be expected at home, we quote the experiences of one large concern having an extensive manufacturing organization in Canada—the makers of Society Brand Clothes.

"The excitement and uncertainty of early war days in Canada quickly subsided, people soon settled down each to his own task and industrial activity soon became general. Higher wages prevail and people are spending freely."

It must stand to reason that the United States will experience as much and even greater activity than Canada. For the United States will feel the impetus of forces that Canada did not have.

First comes the expenditure of approximately Seven Billions of Dollars extra for the products of American industries, farms and shipyards.

The Philadelphia North American says, in an editorial:

"The single item that seven billions of dollars—a sum so stupendous that the mind cannot grasp it—is to be expended here, is enough to dissipate all uncertainty. It was the expenditure of the first fifty millions on materials for the Allies that started the business of the country booming; when it was realized that they would need a billion dollars' worth of our products, the flow of prosperity became a torrent. The force of that is still felt and now it is to be multiplied seven times!"

So let us all bend to the task of keeping the course of our daily life in its usual channel; let us keep the wheels of industry turning, so that individually and collectively, we may perform the great work which has come into our hands.

Friday Morning Session

Friday morning's session opened with a communion service, led by Rev. H. W. Peck of Santa Ana, assisted by Revs. Dearing, Lee and Smith. Among the new faces welcomed in attendance were those of Mrs. Silas Sproles, conference president, and Dr. Nellie Kramer, missionary, on furlough from Alaska, to return July 1.

Reports from auxiliaries showed to how large an extent women of cities and hamlets are, through the Women's Home Missionary Society, coming into helpful touch with the lives of others from Hawaii to the Atlantic, from Alaska to Porto Rico, wherever the flag flies.

The committee on resolutions then presented its report which was adopted, thanking the press and those who had assisted by entertainment, decoration and music, all of whom have contributed much to the success and pleasure of the convention. A letter of greeting was ordered sent to the absent president, Mrs. S. A. Smith, and one of sympathy to Mrs. I. J. Reynolds, who is ill at her home.

Two beautiful vocal numbers formed pleasing interludes in the program, a temperance solo by Mrs. Winbiger and "Hold Thou My Hand" by Miss Holly Lash.

RESORTS TO GUN MUSIC TO CALL ATTENTION OF LADY LOVE

Mexican Dance Interrupted
Saturday Night By Gun
Play of Jealous Lover

Theo. Samalpa, a Mexican, didn't use a guitar or a sweet voice Saturday night to attract the attention of a girl who to him is the sweetest in the world—he used a pistol. As a result he is today in the county jail, and may remain there for some days to come. As a result of his disturbance D. Arellano and Jose E. Felix also languish in jail.

The three men were in attendance at a dance at the rear of 1029 Logan street, Julia Arellano, a thirteen-year-old girl, was also among those present. Samalpa is sweet on the little maiden. Others of the dancers were paying her too much attention and Samalpa grew jealous. In his rage and to attract his sweetheart he whipped out his pistol and commenced firing. He fired three shots into the floor of the room in which the dance was being held. Boynton, John Ryan and Dean of the city night police were called and when they searched the Mexicans at the place they found concealed weapons on the three men under arrest.

KANSAN 'BUMS' WAY OVER 'POND' TO WAR

LONDON, June 11.—Tom Phillips of Wichita, Kansas, quit his job as a street car conductor to go to war. He bummed his way to England with Tom La Roche, of Oakland, California. They landed in August, 1915, and joined the Welsh Guards.

"Tom was killed at Ypres in July, 1916," said Phillips. "I've been pretty lucky—wounded twice but nothing serious. First I got slammed on the head with a pal's rifle butt during bayonet fighting with Fritz. It was so close we couldn't always be sure who was getting hit. But the real blighty wounds came last September on the Somme. A machine-gun bullet went through my left wrist and another through my leg, and then they operated on my head, and they're still at it."

LADIES' TAILORING
Special reduced prices until July 1. Have your suit tailored to your individual figure. Select materials and style wanted and have it made by an experienced tailor. Perfect fit and correct style offset the slight difference in cost between a tailor-made and an ill-fitting ready-made garment. Chas. Land, 109 East Third St. Phone 1350.

The Office Boy's Defense

The boss lay in wait for the erring office boy.
"William," he said, as the urchin came in, "you asked me for the afternoon of yesterday. I gave it to you, and then I saw you at the ball game. You told me you were going to a funeral."

The office boy grinned.
"And I wasn't far wrong, was I? Did you ever see a slower game in your life?"—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Kindly Act
Woman—Well, what do you want?
Tramp—A piece of chalk, lady, so I kin warn de next guy before he gets inside de gate.

"Willie! You get right out of that bed instantly or you go to school without your breakfast."
"Aw, look here, mom, that there's conscription. Why don'tcha let me be a volunteer?"

A WINDOW GARDEN
"Got a back yard?"
"Nope, I live in an apartment."
"Doing your bit?"
"Yep, I'm raising a couple of onions in a tomato can."

REALTY AGENT SUES ANOTHER FOR HIS SHARE

Collision That Occurred In September, 1914, Basis of Trial This Morning

According to a complaint filed this morning, two real estate agents put through a trade and one of them has not received his share of the commission. C. B. Buxton is suing K. Lundeen Company for $900. The two firms co-operated in a real estate deal for W. R. Bartley. H. C. Head is attorney for the plaintiff.

Answer Is Filed

The answer of the City of Santa Ana in an action for $10,700 brought by Mary H. James, whose ranch property was damaged and who lost personal property in the flood that came from the breaking of the Ojai dam in January, 1916, was filed today. The defense is that it was not weakness of the dam that caused it to break, not carelessness on the part of the city, but what is described in law as "an act of God." The storms were so great and the rainfall so heavy that ordinary human judgment could not have safeguarded against the breaking of the dam.

Given His Papers

Werner Robert Dross, born in Elbing, Germany, in 1879, is now an American citizen. He passed an examination two weeks ago, but the issuance of final papers was held up until the return of one of his witnesses, Harry Spencer of Irvine. Under the law it became necessary for the witness to show his naturalization papers to the judge. Dross is employed in the warehouse at Irvine.

Trial Is Today

Today Judge Thomas is taking testimony in the action of W. T. Brown of Fullerton against O. J. Thacker and others of Los Angeles. Suit is for $600, based upon a collision that occurred between Santa Ana and Newport Beach in September, 1914. Thacker paid a fine for driving while intoxicated. He was employed by a Los Angeles firm, which is made defendant, but which denies responsibility for Thacker's acts. Head & Marks are attorneys for the plaintiff.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

SIX MONTHS GIVEN BEATER OF WOMAN

On the theory that a woman of middle age has a right to dance with whom she chooses, Justice Cox sent Luis Jimenez to jail for six months.

Mrs. Camilla Morena, fat and past forty, and Jimenez were at a dance party at a Mexican house at Anaheim when Jimenez demanded why she danced with some man not among those he wanted her to dance with. Her reply excited anger, words, blows. The woman in court today had one eye closed and her face swollen and bruised from a beating.

Charges Carelessness

Laurence W. Eaton today swore to a complaint charging a Jap, T. Kuriyama, with careless driving. The charge is the result of a collision of two automobiles on a bridge at Newport Beach. No one was hurt.

Lee Fox, a more or less well-known character about town, today was given a fender out of town. He was arrested Saturday evening by John Ryan and charged with vagrancy, and this morning Justice Cox sentenced him to six months in the county jail, suspending the sentence on condition that he leave Santa Ana by 5 o'clock this evening.

It is alleged that Fox has not taken a bath in fifteen years and that he has been the source of some trouble to officers of the city.

'SECRET STUNT' STEIN'S PLAN FOR LUNCHEON

Wednesday Commerce Chamber Affair Is Veiled In Deepest Mystery

A "Secret Stunt" is what Sam Stein, chairman of this Wednesday's Chamber of Commerce luncheon, today announced as "something different" for this week's get-together affair.

Deepest mystery veils Stein's plans. All he divulges is that the attendance will be limited to eighty, that an admission of $1 each will be charged and that all who attend must be willing to give two hours of their time, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m., Wednesday.

Stein has appointed several hustlers to circulate around town with tickets. He states, however, that any who are not solicited and who desire to attend the "secret stunt" telephone him or James', where the affair will be staged.

The most earnest questioning, prompted by burning curiosity, today failed to budge Stein from his determination not to reveal anything of his plans. All he would say was:

"Everyone who attends will get his dollar's worth."

CHINESE MINISTERS CHARGED AS BRIBERS

PEKING, June 11.—Two high Chinese officials, Chen Chin-tao, Minister of Finance and Yin Ju-lin, Vice-Minister in the same department, are seeking new jobs here today, following the disclosures of a bribery scandal in which they were implicated. The Vice-Minister when called before President Li Yuan-hung, admitted that the finance department had accepted $100,000 (gold) from a syndicate which put forward a scheme last January for buying and melting brass coins.

President Li investigated the charges. Then he issued a mandate dismissing the officials. Criminal proceedings may be instituted against them.

That man is great, and he alone, Who serves a greatness not his own, For neither praise nor self.

District Attorney L. A. West
Delivers Splendid Address
At Church Last Night

At the close of the great meeting at the Christian church last night, a resolution was introduced and enthusiastically voted by the congregation to continue the program of young people's services.

Young people themselves were the first to make this demand, because so many questions have not been answered and so many topics have not been considered. Eight young people were attracted to the offering. A double male quartet furnished an excellent number. Mrs. C. D. Brown gave a charming whistling solo.

Rev. Kelson presented a violin solo of great merit. The Volunteer C. E. Society conducted the devotional exercises. Little Miss Brady reading the Scriptures and Miss Eunice Davis leading in prayer. The main address of the evening was by District Attorney L. A. West and was on the subject, "Law—Why may I not write."

Mr. West was very happy in his opening remarks and put the audience at ease by his fine sense of humor. "I had expected," he said, "to address only a few young people and not a large audience that seems to me to be much more than Garden Grove."

The crucial question in world law today is whether law shall be automatic or democratic—whether it shall be from the top down or from the bottom up. In our country, it is from the bottom up. The voice of the people is supreme in the making and enforcement of law.

Law-makers are only representatives who are responsible to the people and elect them. This right to make our own laws has been secured at great cost and is something to live by and die for. "Why may I not write

WHAT IS URIC ACID?

Does Uric Acid Cause Backache, Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble?

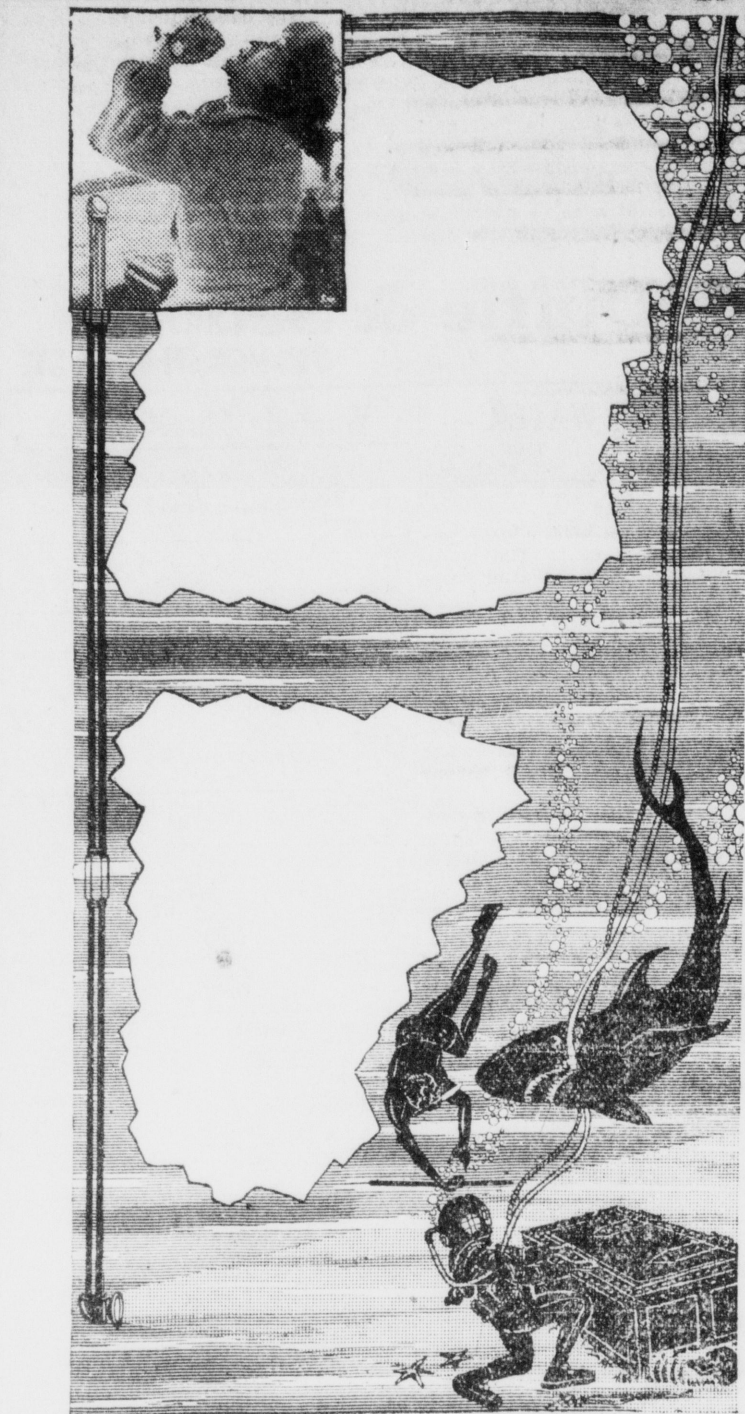

Dear Dr. Pierce:—What is Uric Acid? Does it cause kidney trouble? Not long ago I was examined for insurance and an analysis of the kidney secretions showed an excess of Uric Acid. I suffer from backache, and rheumatism in my limbs, but never before suspected my kidneys. I recognize you as an authority on these subjects, and wish you would give me this information. Lewis R.

Answer:—My dear Sir: Answering your letter, Uric Acid indicates Rheumatism of the system; it is also evidence of several other poisons existing in the blood, and in the cells of the joints, nerves and muscles. Excess of Uric Acid in the system, especially in small quantities, is caused by eating too much meat and foods that ferment in the blood are supposed to be excreted and thrown the poisons out of the system. Weak, tired and overworked persons fail to do this, hence the poisons Uric Acid and its associated poisons contaminate the blood, causing backache, lameness, rheumatism, dropsy, drowsy and tired, worn-out feeling, short breath and many other symptoms.

To remove the trouble is only a matter of cleaning up the kidneys, and this is best done by a treatment with "An-Uric," with proper diet and exercise. This prescription has been thoroughly tested and used by specialists at my institution, in Buffalo, N. Y., with extraordinary results, and astonishing relief.

I usually put "An-Uric" before the American people and it may now be obtained from almost any one of the leading druggists in town, simply by asking for Dr. Pierce's "An-Uric," in tablet form.

Take good medical advice, and do not let the early Bright's Disease or Diabetic develop from neglected kidneys. (Signed) V. M. PIERCE, M. D.

a law? And why should the public not obey my law? Just because there is safety and security in the thought and desire of all the people as expressed in Vox Populi.

"Special privilege will always try to defeat the will of the people and for a short time may succeed in doing so, but the general public is the court to which such issues must be referred and will sooner or later revoke the law that is in the interests of the few. The short cut to the retirement of an unfair and unpopular law is its strict enforcement.

"The home and the parent is first in an orderly and law observing life. The home law is the origin of all law. Children should be governed firmly and kindly. Failure to so educate and control and safeguard is the source of the wrecks and tragedies that strew our court rooms today. Carelessness and anarchy in the home is sure to result in after ruin.

"Finally, there is the law of God. It is first of all. To make this book the guide or life will enable you to avoid the snares and pitfalls that ruin so many lives—those whose lives are fashioned by its holy teaching need have not fear of courts and jails and the stern process of the law. These four points I would have you remember: The law of nation, state, home and God."

Three questions taken from the question box were treated as follows by Rev. Lloyd Darsie:

Spooning—What is it?
"What is wrong with spooning?"

What do you mean by spooning and what is a spoon?

A "spoon" is soft, squishy, sentimental, promiscuous, common. Spooning, of the type that I am after, is a sex emotion of the slobbering type. It is lacking in self-restraint and self-respect and is first cousin to free-love. With this definition I am saved from attacking that legitimate and self-respecting expression of mutual affection that is right and admirable when young people have given themselves to each other in betrothal, in all love and confidence and self-respect. Even in the raptures of new-found love between the engaged, there ing worse. And nothing seems to go. You may whine and scold and criticize. Till your face is pinched and blue; Other faces will glow with hope and love; It isn't the church, it's you.

Is Lie Justifiable?
"Is a lie ever justifiable?"

Note the form of this question—not "is a lie ever right?" but "is one justified in telling a lie?"

We are all in danger of the boy's definition of a lie: "A lie is an abomination unto the Lord and a very present help in time of trouble."

Is it? Most of us have found out by sad experience that it is the devil's lure for more trouble. It is the story of the fly on the sticky paper—a story all that is needed and one must go on. The argument for a justifiable lie is usually on the ground of escaping great suffering or loss or saving other lives or property. But the Master said, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Is it ever right to do evil that good may come? That would be to use the devil's tools. Right is always right, and wrong is always wrong. Between these two there is a great gulf fixed; It cannot be crossed without the loss of conscience and the sense of right.

To suffer for the truth's sake, to make any sacrifice, even to die for the truth, is the teaching of the word of God. The justifiable lie approaches equivocation or justifiable deception in tempting us to do wrong. If a physician should tell his patient the truth the shock of imminent danger might prove fatal. If we should tell all we know it might start a fight or bring about tragedies of all kinds. Truth-telling does not require that one should be rude or brutal or reckless. There can be tact and wisdom in your manner of telling the truth or in withholding it.

No! a lie is never justifiable even at the sacrifice of great values, including life itself. There are some things

If you want to live in the kind of a church Like the kind of a church you like, You needn't slip your clothes in a grip And start on a long, long hike. You will only find what you left behind. For there's nothing that's really new. It's a knock at yourself when you knock the church; It isn't the church, it's you.

If the preacher's dull and the sermon's dry In the church you call your own, Take a good square look at your face In the glass And think of the seed you've sown. It is hard to preach to a turnip head; It is sad to tell, but it's true, You're as dry as dust, your head's like a bone; It isn't the parson, it's you.

Is Lie Justifiable?
"Is a lie ever justifiable?"

Note the form of this question—not "is a lie ever right?" but "is one justified in telling a lie?"

We are all in danger of the boy's definition of a lie: "A lie is an abomination unto the Lord and a very present help in time of trouble."

Is it? Most of us have found out by sad experience that it is the devil's lure for more trouble. It is the story of the fly on the sticky paper—a story all that is needed and one must go on. The argument for a justifiable lie is usually on the ground of escaping great suffering or loss or saving other lives or property. But the Master said, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Is it ever right to do evil that good may come? That would be to use the devil's tools. Right is always right, and wrong is always wrong. Between these two there is a great gulf fixed; It cannot be crossed without the loss of conscience and the sense of right.

To suffer for the truth's sake, to make any sacrifice, even to die for the truth, is the teaching of the word of God. The justifiable lie approaches equivocation or justifiable deception in tempting us to do wrong. If a physician should tell his patient the truth the shock of imminent danger might prove fatal. If we should tell all we know it might start a fight or bring about tragedies of all kinds. Truth-telling does not require that one should be rude or brutal or reckless. There can be tact and wisdom in your manner of telling the truth or in withholding it.

No! a lie is never justifiable even at the sacrifice of great values, including life itself. There are some things

Liberty Loan

Backed by all the Resources of the Richest Nation in the World

A UNITED STATES Government Liberty Loan Bond is the safest investment on earth. It is backed by the total resources of the richest nation in the world. It pays an absolutely net income—it is practically as good as cash.

Why You Should Subscribe

"A big loan will shorten the war, will help to save life, and will help to save civilization."

Every man, woman and child who enjoys the blessings of this commonwealth should seriously realize that he is a unit of the whole. If we do not each contribute some portion at once of the prosperity which our country has made possible for us, we are not doing our share to assist our Allies, and we may suffer a defeat which will impose upon this country such a conqueror's indemnity as will lose our hard-won freedom for generations. Do not forget that France paid Germany an indemnity after 1871 of about one billion dollars, and only a short time before the present war fully liquidated this Indemnity Loan to its people.

It is cheaper by far to win than to be defeated. There are over 100 million men, women and children in this country, of whom it is estimated that there are more than 40 million persons engaged in gainful occupations.

Of Vital Importance

It is vitally necessary for each of these 40 million persons to realize the danger and the opportunity and to subscribe a portion of his possessions to the Liberty Loan.

It is said that if every individual in the United States should subscribe to the Liberty Bonds to the extent of only 5 per cent of his or her total possessions, the loan would be subscribed six times over.

Liberty Bonds may be purchased in multiples of $50. They bear 3½ per cent interest, payable semi-annually December 15th and June 15th. They mature in 30 years and are redeemable in 15 years. Should the Government put out any future issues at an interest rate higher than 3½ per cent before the close of the war, this "Liberty Loan" will immediately become convertible into higher rate bonds.

A Safe Net Income

Our Government has made these bonds exempt from all state or federal taxes, except estate and inheritance taxes. They thus give an income of 3½ per cent absolutely net to you, regardless of the income tax. There are many investments paying a higher rate of interest which do not yield as much as 3½ per cent net after all taxes have been paid.

The Best Basis For Credit

Liberty Loan Bonds are the best possible basis for credit. When you need a loan you can present them to your banker and get the money you need.

A Liberty Loan Bond is worth many times its face value in the credit it secures for you.

No investment you hold can be safer and no other bond enjoys such a broad and ready market in case you wish to sell.

The Secretary of the Treasury says: "The greatest immediate service the American people can render in this war for universal liberty throughout the world is to furnish the means for its vigorous prosecution. This bond issue is the first step. I earnestly bespeak the co-operation of every citizen throughout the length and breadth of the land in this great service of patriotism."
